

The layout area is a large rectangular frame containing a grid of empty rectangular boxes. In the top right corner of this frame, there is a red circular stamp with a scalloped edge. The stamp contains a white horizontal bar across its center and two small white stars, one above and one below the bar. The rest of the grid is empty, with a thin orange horizontal line visible in one of the lower-right cells.